

Donna is the Director and Steve is the Laborer. That's how they got this beautiful yard on Waipouli Rd. Husband and wife, Steve Herzig and Donna Perlman are the February winners of the Wailua Kapaa Neighborhood Association's Neighborhood Pride Award.

The Garden State to the Garden Island via sailing the Caribbean and the Pacific Ocean and on to California. From selling cars to growing beautiful plants its love, marriage and a partnership. Donna says you put something in the ground, it grows too big, then its "Steve, you have to move it."

Donna and Steve have been married 23 years after meeting in a car dealership. Donna had already sailed the Caribbean, found Kauai, sailed to the South Pacific, made a documentary on the Marqueses' Tikis, which is still available for showing in the Bishop Museum. Once Steve said he'd move to Kauai, Donna did the "He's not going to change his mind" chant. During the recession their home in the Bay Area sold in one week.

They live in the "Golden Pond Subdivision" which actually has a pond at the bottom. They have almost a 360 degree view. They can see all the Eastside mountains and the ocean. The Kauai spirit has grabbed them big time.
